

Tossed® Designs a New Limited Time Offer Salad for Breast Cancer Awareness Month

One dollar from every Strawberry Passion for the cure salad will be donated to Susan G. Komen for the cure

FT. LAUDERDALE, FL — (September 28, 2010) — Tossed®, home of garden fresh salads, crepe wraps and sandwiches, has created “Strawberry Passion salad for the cure”, a limited time offer that will be sold during the month of October in support of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month. One dollar from every Strawberry Passion salad sold throughout the month will be donated to Susan G. Komen for the Cure®.

The Strawberry Passion salad which will be sold at every Tossed® location, combines baby field greens, freshly roasted chicken, dried cranberries, apples, cucumber, strawberries and goat cheese with tossed vinaigrette.

“Statistics show that one in every eight women will develop breast cancer over the course of her lifetime,” said Eric Clark, Chief Operating Officer of Tossed Franchise Corporation. “We chose Susan G. Komen for the Cure because not only are the majority of our customers are women, but many of our employees have been touched in one way or another by this deadly disease.”

Tossed joined the fight against breast cancer and began its partnership with the Susan G. Komen Foundation last month, when it introduced two of its most popular dressings for retail sale at Gristede’s grocery stores throughout Manhattan and at all participating Tossed locations. Tossed will donate 2.5% of the retail price of each bottled dressing sold, with a minimum total donation of $10,000. “We hope our efforts to raise money for the fight against breast cancer will provide much-needed support to the battle to end breast cancer” Clark said.
